Players will all get a “regular “ video then it will transition into the valorant character >

Need* Name - Position - Favorite Agent - Clip

Theme:
Players transform into their chosen Valorant agents through cinematic actions symbolizing confidence, focus, and power.

Tone:
Stylish. Cinematic. Jazz-punk energy like Cowboy Bebop meets Valorant

Music:
Cowboy Bebop intro (sync edits to beat drops + instrumental hits)

PLAYER INTRO SEQUENCE (0:10 – 1:10)

Each player gets 5–7 seconds.
Goal: Motion → Pose → Morph.

Player Flow Template

1. Action / Slow Motion (2–3s):
    - They perform a movement inspired by their agent (throw, reload, adjust gloves, glance back, etc.).
2. Pose Hold (2s):
    - They hold the exact final posture of their agent (from Valorant official art).
3. Transition (2s):
    - Background flashes red or blue; player gradually morphs into the agent image (opacity blend + color overlay).
    - Add subtle particle or glow effect matching agent ability.

PLAYER EXAMPLES

Captain (Player 4) – Power Source Scene

- Setup: Dim light, spotlight on hands.
- Action: Holds invisible glowing orb → slow camera circle around him.
- Pose: Hands extended like Phoenix holding a fireball / Brimstone with tactical gear.
- Transition: Orb glows → explosion → fade into Valorant poster version.

FINAL STORY STRUCTURE

OPENING - “THE SIGNAL” (0:00 - 0:20 approx)

Environment Real-time audio, natural campus noise inside RecWell.

Camera is Over-the-shoulder shot following the Captain walking down a hallway (hand-held feel).

Suddenly…….. Loudspeaker crackles, “Spike planted.” or “The match has begun.”

Action: Captain pauses, checks his watch or phone, UMD Esports logo glows red on screen.

Cut: Montage of six others in different corners of RecWell (training room, arena door, stairs, hall lights), they all receive the same signal.

Transition into Quick eye-contact or nods, cut to black.

Scene 2: INDIVIDUAL INTROS (0:20- 1:10m)

Cowboy Bebop intro drops (brass + drums).

Each player performs action -> holds agent pose -> morphs into Valorant agent splash art pose (you already planned these).

Name + Agent Tagline (“Arjun - The Coach,” “Emma - The Ace”). Players can come up with their own taglines.

Orb energy or floating light from each player travels off screen -> connects to next player sequence (seamless chain of energy).

Scene 3 - Set up

Fast cuts - players running down corridors, loading gear, checking corners like agents.

Low-angle tracking shots, shoulder cams, slow-mo turns.

Bits of Valorant HUD graphics flash on screen - mini map pings, timer 0:10.

SCENE 4 - Climax

All seven players arrive at the center.

They form a circle and all raise their fists or perform agent-inspired signature moves simultaneously (fist bump / glove snap / orb catch).

Burst of light and screen glitches like a TV turning off.

Outro

Text sequence appears in quick cuts with sound design pops between each line:

“THEY’RE COMING…”

“FEAR THE TURTLE.”

“SEE YOU SOON.”

“CO-ED VALORANT.”

Final frame: UMD Esports logo flares red and glitches out to black.
